Andrea Piazza

Baritone

Andrea Piazza

Andrea Piazza (25 years old) is a young Italian baritone born in Palermo in 2000. He graduated with highest honors from the Music High School of his hometown before continuing his vocal studies under the guidance of Maestro Lucio Gallo, while already developing a solid regional concert career.

He made his operatic debut in La Traviata with Bottega della Lirica in Treviso. He later returned to collaborate with the same company, making his debut in the title role of Don Giovanni.

Among his most significant engagements is the world premiere of Robin Hood by Michele Dell'Ongaro at the Teatro Petruzzelli in Bari. He made his debut as Marcello in La Bohème at the Teatro Coccia in Novara, where he returned in 2024 to perform the role of Silvio in I Pagliacci.

In November 2025, he is scheduled to make his debut at the Teatro Comunale di Bologna in La Bohème.

Winner of the "Paolo Silveri" Prize at the "Nicolai Ghiaurov" International Competition, he was awarded as Best Young Baritone.
